PJ: When did you know the time frame?
Ans: Difficult to nail down times
Permits take time
Can only do the work in specific windows, Con Ed does not want to work on Gas lines in heating season therefore they want to do it by 10/1

V Gholsen: What about parking?
Ans: 3 metered spots for the bus stop and 5 others for trucks unloading

Initial demolition: 10 bldgs 129-130 will take 9 mos
Will fence and bridge
Some asbestos, in tiling so not likely to fly into air, but precautions will be taken workers on it will wear white and there will be air monitors.
Then will demolish to grade.
Will move cars from GMC to the UHaul site And have gotten 300 spaces nearby
This is part of the bathtub
Trucks enter on 130, exit on 129
Will salvage Hudson faqade
Have designed the bidding so one can go to minority and women [smaller]
And expect that the larger bidders will sub some work to minority and women
Area to be fenced til work on the bath tub begins 3Q10
Idea for locals to paint the fences
PJ: Important for community to be kept up to date.
VG: Important to share bec it puts us ina difficult position if you don’t
At this point CU left
PJ we will need a smaller meeting to deal with short comings

There was a question about the frequency of the updates and the locus, some stating that it should be done at the Gen Bd Mtgs, Realized that reports of this evening’s length would be impossible.
VG: Important to bring CU to the community

Chair: P Jones

Report in package
We need a tribute to C Kent and a reso for the family
There will be a moment of silence then the reso

Treasurer: A Fletcher [AF]

Committee met to discuss consultation process and planning for next yea
Floated idea of a budget liaison for each committee
Will put together a Budget Calendar
Floated idea of a budget seminar for committee heads
Comptroller stated that voucher approvals and checks should not be signed by same people; therefore we need new signatories
Noted that Ray McLaughlin was a temp and there were probs with his hiring
Stated that the bylaws are contradictory re hiring of lower level workers, they need clarification

Re the McLaughlin prob, we could be liable for a penalty
Agreed that we would get the City to handle the matter

DM E Prince

Submitted written report
Discussed the attendance report
Members should review and note needed corrections
Will meet with CT
Reminded re the Budget Consultations
