Honorable Bill Perkins, New York State 30th Senatoral, stated that New York State legislators were able to agree on the 3.6 deficit reduction plan out of the budget in December due to shortfall in revenue. The legislators are still facing a challenge to come up with 3.2 billion to close the budget deficit. Senator Perkins stated that he sponsored a Public Authorities Reform bill that will force public authorities like the MTA, Empire State Corporation to be more transparent. (See attached article) copies of the bill are available in his 125th office.

He urged everyone to participate in the Census 2010 and indicated that only 44 % participated in the 2000 Census in our district, meaning that according to the federal funding almost 60 % is not accounted for in our community; the federal funding depends on the Census statistics to assign funds to our community. He is aware of local Post Office complaints and his office will work with the committee to resolve problems when possible.

Complaints:
❖ There is a safety concern from parents due to no security at the Grant Houses Day Care Center.
❖ There is a huge problem regarding home attendants; seniors are seeking help to correct the current safety problem.

Action Taken:
Complainants referred to:
❖ DM, Eutha Prince (present) who urged official filing of complaints with CB#9 Board Office – Reminded the group that neighborhood complaints to be filed at Board Office.
❖ Senior Helping Seniors – Vannisha Taylor (present)
❖ Tenants and Landlord Reconciliation Community group (Florence Rice) call (212) 491-7229.
❖ Senior Issues Committee – to follow-up.

Old Business:

The Committee Chair summarized the Senior Issues Committee Goals for 2008-2009 and accomplishments. The Committee agreed on continuation of last year’s items and others as needed.

Update on proposed Senior Reading Garden next to George Bruce Library:
❖ Sarah Martin, Grant Houses, NYCHA reported that the letter requested by Manager of Grant Houses was delivered and awaiting response from the appropriate administration office. The Horticultural Society of New York representative to submit the revised proposal by 12/15/08. An updated report is expected at the January 2010 meeting.
