Innovative senior centers go beyond the offering of traditional senior center to include flexible and expanded hours on evening and weekends, and café-style flexible meal times. One of the innovative senior centers included programming specifically for Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender and visually impaired communities.

Silver Alert Program:
In 2009 New York City launched a Senior Alert system “Silver Alert Program” to assist to locate missing seniors at risk. The New York City Police Department will issue a Silver Alert when a senior with cognitive impairments go missing. Notifications will send through the City’s Notify NYC system to subscribers in the five boroughs, the media and will be transmitted wirelessly to yellow cabs. The public will be asked to call in any tips to a special number.

Ms. Arthur reminded the seniors that Medicare Enrollment started on October 15th to December 7th and anyone who has questions can call DFTA to assist or answer questions. She can be reached at (212) 609-4180.

Manhattan Community Board No. 9 Senior Issues Committee Public Member:
Ms. Cora Gilmore stated that she attended the Department For The Aging Annual Planned Consultations reported that rent control and rent stabilization, housing, home care, health care and Medicare, Medicaid were high lights of the seniors issues at the annual planned consultations. She stated that seniors from other parts of the city attended but there was no representation from Harlem. She indicated that the department has funds to assist seniors and solve problems, but seniors should attend and bring their concerns. Their concerns can be put in a written testimony and a senior can read it at the consultations.

New York City Housing Authority Grant Houses
Ms. Gloria Allen reported that right now she is acting President of the Grant’s Houses Tenants Association. The election to elect new officers will be held in December and she stated that she will be stepping down from a seat as a Vice-President for 20 years. She has been an acting President for 3/4 months now. She mentioned that the new officers should encourage seniors to attend CB9M’s Senior Issues Committee meetings because they’re informative and educational.

Old Business
