Department of Sanitation Reported:

Enforcement of Business Recycling Rules Began August 1st Streamlined Rules Will Make Recycling Easier and Consistent Across all Business Types:

Sanitation Commissioner Kathryn Garcia announced as of August 1, 2017, the New York City Department of Sanitation began enforcing business recycling rules that went into effect last year. The rules cover all commercial establishments, and others, that have their garbage and recycling collected by private carters. All businesses must recycle metal, glass, plastic, beverage cartons and paper. Some must also recycle textiles and organic material.

The rules were published in February 2016, became effective August 1, 2016. Whereby a one-year warning period was in effect until August 1, 2017.

Previously, businesses recycled different materials based on their business type. Eliminating the distinction between business types and applying the same rules for all will facilitate greater recycling participation and make recycling easier. In addition, the rules allow for co-collection of recyclables in a single recycling stream by authorized private carters, which will help make commercial recycling easier to manage and can significantly increase diversion of recyclables from landfills.

The Department will deploy enforcement officers and agents to conduct inspections of businesses to determine their compliance with the recycling rules. Rules include requiring proper recycling set up; education and notification of employees and customers what and how to recycle, and source-separation where waste is stored before collection, and at set out.

Over the past year and a half, the Department, along with other city agencies, worked directly with businesses to ensure they were properly notified of the rules. Department of Sanitation conducted more than 10,000 outreach site visits and held nearly 100 trainings. Recycling fines per violation (within a 12-month period), first offense: $100; second offense: $200; third offense: $400.

Businesses can sign up for training or download information at:
<http://www1.nyc.gov/assets/dsny/zerowaste/businesses/resources.shtml>.

DSNY LAUNCHES NEW APPOINTMENT SERVICE TO SCHEDULE LARGE BULK PICKUPS WILL ALLOW FOR MORE TIMELY COLLECTIONS:

Sanitation Commissioner Kathryn Garcia announced the official launch of a new and innovative appointment system designed to help DSNY more efficiently collect large non-recyclable bulky items such as sofas, mattresses, and large wooden furniture.

New Yorkers can now arrange for timely bulk pickup appointments online at nyc.gov/bulk or by calling 311.

The new service is designed for items that are larger than four (4) feet by three (3) feet, such as sofas and bulky wooden furniture that can be lifted by two workers and be able to fit inside a Sanitation collection truck.

To find convenient donation centers and non-profit partners, visit nyc.gov/donate.

This service does not apply to items that require special handling, such as air conditioners, refrigerators, TVs, computers, and other electronics. To learn how to properly recycle or dispose of those items, visit nyc.gov/dsny or call 311.

Also, metal, glass and rigid plastic items, including bedframes, patio furniture, and filing cabinets, should still be placed out for recycling collection after 4 p.m. the night before your scheduled recycling day.

Some helpful tips:

- Do not block foot traffic or place items in the street or in front of another property.
- If you have more than six (6) large items for collection, schedule additional appointments.
- Place your large items curbside after 4 pm the night before your appointment.
- Mattresses/box springs should be placed in a plastic bag before setting out at curbside to prevent the spread of bed bugs and avoid a $100 fine.

DOB Reported: DOB NOW, building owners, design professionals, licensees and homeowners can now create online accounts, making it easier to submit applications, make payments, schedule appointments, check the status of an application, pull permits, and make renewals.

DOB NOW will be released in phases with the following currently in effect:

- Inspections provides online scheduling for virtually all inspections, making it easier to schedule inspection appointments, offer more precise inspection scheduling and improve inspection tracking and notifications. Plus, it improves our service by standardizing our Inspectors' electronic checklists – and allowing industry members to certify certain objections electronically, eliminating the cost of re-inspections;
- Build: The online platform for Professional Engineers (P.E.), Registered Architects (R.A.), Licensees, Special Inspectors, Progress Inspectors, Filing Representatives and Owners to submit jobs to the Department of Buildings;

DOT Reported: On Continued discussions throughout the district to engage community input on the “Proposed Safety Improvements for Amsterdam Ave, and the Bike Share (CitiBike). To view the proposed Plans in its entirety for the Amsterdam Improvement, please visit:

“Amsterdam Avenue (110th St. to 162nd St.) Safety Improvements, on DOT’s website at www.nyc.gov/dot.

HRA Reported: The Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (formerly known as “food stamps”) provides food assistance for nearly 1.8 million low-income New Yorkers including families, the elderly and the disabled. The program helps families and individuals supplement the cost of their diet with nutritious foods.

HOW TO APPLY:

- You can apply online on ACCESS HRA. Read the user guide for ACCESS HRA.
- You can call Infoline at 718-557-1399 to have an application mailed to you
- You can pick up an application at one of our SNAP centers
- You can print out an application and drop off at a SNAP center:

Manhattan District Attorney’s Office Reported: $3.75 Million to support Youth Aging out of Foster Care Manhattan District Attorney Cyrus R. Vance, Jr., announced the investment of $3,750,000 to enhance and expand innovative programs for youth who are transitioning out of the foster care system. The three-year grants awarded to The Door and Graham Windham are expected to serve approximately 500 New Yorkers ages 16- to 24-years-old each year. The Manhattan District Attorney’s Office is providing these grants through its Criminal Justice Investment Initiative \(“CJII”\), which District Attorney Vance created using criminal forfeiture funds obtained through the Office’s settlements with international banks for violating U.S. sanctions

Youth Aging Out of Foster Care

Recognizing that investments in remedial education and pathways to employment best equip this population to transition out of care, District Attorney Vance awarded three-year grants totaling $3,750,000 to the following two organizations, which are expected to serve approximately 500 young New Yorkers who are about to transition, or have recently transitioned, from foster care each year:

- The Door
 - Award: $1,875,000
 - Services and Programming: Academic and career services; work readiness and occupational skills training, including career advancement coaches and job placement specialists; individualized case management; housing placement.
- Graham Windham
 - Award: $1,875,000
 - Services and Programming: Individualized case management; permanency and family-finding services; peer support groups and mentoring; mental health treatment; targeted employment and educational support; housing placement.

District Attorney Vance previously awarded The Door a $6.5 million grant to create one of five Youth Opportunity Hubs, a first-of-its-kind effort to knit together community-based providers and build new physical spaces for young people in target Manhattan neighborhoods.

Mayor's Office on Emergency Management Reported: How to help those affected by Hurricanes

You can support those affected by Hurricane Harvey, Hurricane Irma, and Hurricane Maria. Visit FEMA's website for additional updates and information on hurricane relief.

Making a financial contribution to a volunteer agency involved in disaster relief is the best way of helping people in need after a disaster. There are several options available to help:

- Donate cash to The Mayor's Fund to Advance New York City.
- Donate cash to responding organizations by visiting the National Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster website.
- Donate cash to The Hispanic Federation to help those affected by Hurricane Maria.
- Donate cash Hurricane Harvey Relief Fund website.

The City is accepting donation of items that are critically needed for recovery. For more information, visit the Hurricane Maria Relief page.

For updates on how to donate or help those affected by the hurricanes, please visit the Help Now NYC website.
