WHAT WE DO

Founded in 1968, Hope Community Inc., is a community based not-for-profit affordable housing organization that works tirelessly to transform East Harlem community and surrounding neighborhoods through economic development, social service partnerships, and cultural arts programming at Galeria del Barrio. Hope Community's core mission is to continue developing and managing affordable housing and commercial spaces for thousands of low-and moderate-income families in East Harlem and provide its residents and community at large valuable tools and resources to enhance their quality of life. Hope Community's primary catchment area is the neighborhood of East Harlem – extending North from East 96th Street and East from Fifth Avenue to Harlem River. Hope Community currently manages 1,251 rental units. For more than fifty years, Hope Community has created and preserved more than 2100 units of affordable rental and ownership housing opportunities for low-and moderate-income families at seventy-eight (78) Hope Community buildings.

In addition, Hope Community provides thousands of square feet of affordable commercial spaces at twenty-eight (28) buildings throughout East Harlem.
