A Fletcher - Where is funding coming from? M'side Gardens? MHRS? Other orgs would probably like to help

Ron Bruno - will accept help from orgs willing to donate - ronb@mrhsny.org mrhsny.org

William Hamer - Shout out to Ron - Kudos. We work just north of you at 3333 B'way. M'side Heights Comm. Coalition provides help.

Will Haggis - Library offering tax prep help - see flyer for locations

Walter - Taxes online - watch out for 'free' services that aren't free in the end. Is there an income max? Is tax help free for real?

Started recording to cloud at 12:15

At Countee help on hand. At other locations, people prepare taxes for you. There is an income threshold - links list income - $60,000 range I think but need to check.

Anthony - be cautious doing anything on line. I you don't have a computer - you can call libraries directly. Please continue to forward items to us for our mailings.

Gail P. - Still not receiving mailings!

Will Haggis - Black History Month - Book display; art exhibit - William Kitt - 18 pieces on display. Women's History month display is going up.

Robin from Arts and Minds - rogina@mrhsny.org

Open to people from gardens in person or via zoom, inside or outside.

Financial planning workshop on March 17th. March 31st - movie - every month. 100 max on zoom but open to wider community.

Need to limit # of screens - assume 2 people per screen participant and caregiver for arts and minds. Art for people with cognitive decline.

Run two different ways, 1st and third Tuesday of the month. First one is April 5th.

1st meeting - educator introduces 1 or more pieces of art - gives history, museum location, etc.

2nd meeting - discuss art - last 15 min. Dedicated to making a piece of art. Transformative and engaging. Supplies are inexpensive - paper, colored pencils, etc.

A Fletcher - Virtual participants - MRHS - constrained in terms of invitees and are programs archived?

Ron - limit on zoom account of 100. Yes, guest speakers will be archived on website.ff

Fern H. - Arc XVI Fort Wa. Sponsor 3 senior centers and transportation in CB's 9-12
